

12TH JANUARY 2023

08.00 - 08:30 REGISTRATION

08:25 - 08:30 WELCOME

08:30 - 09:45 SESSION 1: THE BASICS TO GET IT RIGHT

- Mesh choices. From synthetic to biologics: clinical indications and evidence
- Optimising the difficult ones: patient selection and preoperative optimisation
- Laparoscopic incisional hernia repair
- Minimally invasive repair of midline hernias. MILOS and beyond
- Questions & Discussion

09:45 - 11:00: SESSION II: ABDOMINAL WALL - WHEN THE GOING GETS TOUGH

- Rives-Stoppa technique the way it should be done
- Component separation techniques: From Anterior to Transversus abdominis release (TAR) how and when
- MIS Extended totally extraperitoneal repair (eTEP) for ventral hernias
- Abdominal wall reconstruction the robotic way
- Questions & Discussion

11:00 - 11:30 COFFEE BREAK

11:30 - 13:00 SESSION III: ABDOMINAL WALL - WHEN THE GOING GETS REALLY TOUGH

- What to do with the parastomal hernia?
- Managing the open abdomen
- What to do when things do not get together
- Recurrence after abdominal wall reconstruction
- Prophylactic mesh after elective/emergency wall closure
- Questions & Discussion

13:00 - 14:00 LUNCH

14:00- 15:00 SESSION IV: SPONSOR'S SESSION

Potential Sponsors/Talks

- Complex abdominal wall reconstruction with Madrid Technique
- Innovation in Complex Abdominal Repair Ovitex Reinforced Reconstructive Tissue Matrix
- Emergency abdominal wall reconstruction with Permacol
- Abdominal wall frame
- Abthera vs prevena negative pressure therapy
- Open abdomen - Delayed abdominal wall closure (ABRA)
- Questions & Discussion

15:00 - 16:00 SESSION V CONSULTANT CORNER

16:00 -16:30 COFFEE BREAK

ABDOMINAL WALL SURGERY - FROM SIMPLE TO COMPLEX Thursday 12th January 2023

Bush House, 30 Aldwych
London, WC2B 4BG

DDCRS

— SI —
SURG INNOVATIONS